Attention BI city council.

REALLY? Don't you guys have better things to do than harass waterfront homeowners? Can the COBI really afford the no doubt coming lawsuits associated with all this nonsense ? I built my home within 100% compliance. Any attempt to reach back and deem my property "non conforming" will solicit a lawsuit. Good luck with that. I suggest all you guys and gals concentrate on making BI a better place to live for all residences. In other words just do your jobs as public servants and stop with the heavy handed harassment policies .
