Free Volunteer Management and Engagement Trainings Offered During Volunteer Week

Bainbridge Island, Wash., (April, 2015) As part of the second annual Bainbridge Island Volunteer Week, the City of Bainbridge Island and the Bainbridge Community Foundation (BCF) will be co-hosting two free training opportunities focused on volunteer management and engagement. Both trainings will be held in the City Hall Council Chamber and are open to the public.

Brown Bag Lunch: Legal Tools for Effective Volunteer Programs

Hosted by John Fossett, Bainbridge Public Library

Presentation by Yolanka Wulff, Apex Law Group

Tuesday, April 14, 12:00 to 1:00 p.m.

Engaging Volunteers Across Generations

Hosted by Susie Burdick, Executive Director KiDiMu

Tuesday April 14, 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.

The two trainings are being offered as a complementary activity to the Volunteer Week Celebration occurring on Thursday, April 16, in the Bainbridge High School Commons. According to BCF Executive Director Jim Hopper, "Volunteer Week is about celebrating and supporting the work of our community's volunteers. These free trainings are one way that the City and BCF are able to support volunteer activities on Bainbridge Island in a meaningful and tangible way."
