

NARRATIVE

Driver of Unit # 1 and her friends were eastbound on Bjune passing the lower entrance/exit to Town and Country Market and the postal drop boxes. Per #1, the driver of #2, an elderly female, pulled out from the postal drop boxes in the path of #1, striking the passenger side and leaving scrapes along both doors. The male passenger in #1 advised that he yelled at the driver and she told him that she didn't hit the car and drove off. The female passenger took a photo of the vehicle as it drove off, and the vehicle is a green Buick sedan with the first character of the license plate being "A". The photo was sent to me and uploaded to Evidence.com. All parties in unit #1 believed that the driver of Unit #2 was too elderly to safely operate a vehicle.
