

NARRATIVE

Bicyclist was traveling west on Blakely Ave and Just passed the intersection with Three T when they got into a collision.

According to a witness behind the cyclist, the rider had their front wheel turn sharply perpendicular to their path of motion, causing them to flip forward.

The cyclist struck their helmeted head on the pavement, cracking the helmet, and likely broke their collar bone. The Cyclist showed signs of a TBI.

