

NARRATIVE

Both drivers believed there was a vehicle at the stop sign on the west side of the intersection prior to them arriving at the intersection. This vehicle went, and driver #1 (On the east side of the intersection) believed it was her turn. Driver # was at the south side of the intersection after leaving the ferry drop-off, and believed it was her turn to go. She advised she didn't see #1 waiting at the intersection. Both #1 and #2 proceeded and collided in the middle of the intersection. Body Worn Camera for Sgt. Sias.
