

NARRATIVE

Unit 1, a green 1994 Mercury Cougar bearing WA plate [REDACTED] was travelling southbound on State Route 305 just south of Hidden Cove Road. The driver of Unit 1 said that they glanced down at their phone to look at directions and did not see stopped traffic ahead.

Unit 1 was unable to stop in time and rear-ended Unit 2, a 2021 Volvo S60 bearing WA plate [REDACTED].

The collision pushed Unit 2 into the rear of Unit 3, a 2023 Volkswagen ID4 bearing WA plate [REDACTED].

Unit 1 sustained major damage to its front-end and was towed from the scene. Unit 1's driver did not know if she was injured and suffered a minor cut to her hand. She was transported via BIFD as a precaution.

Unit 2 sustained substantial damage to its rear-end. Unit 2's driver was uninjured.

Unit 3 sustained minor damage to its rear-end. Unit 3's driver complained of minor neck pain but did not request to be transported.

Unit 1's driver was cited for dangerously distracted driving; the citation was mailed to their address.

