

NARRATIVE

Officer responded to parking lot and met by the victim of a hit and run incident. He had parked in the parking lot in front of the UPS store and was standing by when he observed a red vehicle begin backing into the space next to his. The red vehicle backed into the space and collided with the driver's side of the victim's door. Officer observed a large scratch on the driver's door. The red vehicle also caused damage to the driver's side mirror.

The victim stated that once the vehicle struck his vehicle, it pulled out of the space, drove a short distance to another parking space and parked there.

The victim and a witness approached the driver of the red vehicle and advised him of the collision. The driver ignored them and left without identifying himself to them.

Scene Not Observed