

NARRATIVE

On 6/28/23 at approximately 1534 hours officer was dispatched to an unknown injury collision on NE Hidden Cove Road, east of SR 305.

Arriving on the scene, the officer located Vehicle 1 in the ditch adjacent to the driveway of the Port Madison Yacht Club located at 8478 NE Hidden Cove Road.

Vehicle 1 had damage to the rear driver's side portion. Officer spoke with the driver and was advised that they were not hurt. The driver advised that that the driver of Vehicle 2 was in the yacht club parking lot.

The front bumper of Vehicle 2 was still on the roadway of NE Hidden Cove Road as it had broken off in the collision. The driver of Vehicle 1 explained that they were pulling out of the access driveway to the yacht club and were attempting to turn left (eastbound) onto NE Hidden Cove Rd.

The driver of Vehicle 1 stated that they looked left but did not see Vehicle 2 and started to pull out but it was too late before Vehicle 2 struck the rear driver's side portion of Vehicle 1.

The driver of Vehicle 2 explained that Vehicle 1 had started to pull out, attempted to stop, and then floored it to try and clear the westbound lane.
